Foreword

Anchors Away! Sail Ho! are not the usual terms heard in the halls of E. P. C. H. S. However, the problems and joys of operating a large ship are much the same as those found in any midwestern high school.

It is with this thought in mind that we have brought the salt sea breezes to the Illinois prairies.

Varsity Football

Don Aldag was chosen honorary captain for 1949 and picked by his teammates as the outstanding lineman on the Raider eleven. He was named to the Greater Peoria All-Star team and won highest honors when coaches and sports writers picked him as the best linesman in the Greater Peoria area.

John Edwards was the Raider chosen right tackle for the Greater Peoria All-Star eleven.

Jerry Webb's powerful drive into the line and off-tackle earned him a place on the Greater Peoria All-Star team. He was selected by his teammates as the outstanding back of the Raiders.
